

BIG CANOE® WELLNESS COLLABORATIVE

VOLUNTEER CONFIDENTIALITY and CONFLICT OF INTEREST AGREEMENT

In consideration for serving as a volunteer in the programs offered through the Big Canoe Wellness Collaborative, I agree to the following:

I will keep confidential all personally identifiable information, records and files regarding clients and program participants.

I will not release any personally identifiable information about a client or participant without both (i) the prior consent of such person or their personal representative and (ii) the prior written authorization of the appropriate Wellness Collaborative program coordinator.

I will not use information about clients or participants to develop customer lists or to make business contacts.

I will not distribute advertising brochures or business cards, make sales pitches to program participants, or perform services for such participants in exchange for monetary or business considerations.

I will allow the Wellness Collaborative to use my name and/or likeness in its publicity and marketing efforts.

I do hereby, on behalf of myself and my spouse or other family member, release the Big Canoe Wellness Collaborative, its programs and any officer, agent or volunteer thereof, from any liability or injury arising out of or related to my volunteer services including but not limited to the transmission of, exposure to or contracting of COVID-19.
